ABOUT US

Established in 2000, Kelly's Travel launched itself as an independent travel agent based in Hatfield, Worcester.

Kelly's Travel comprises of Kelly Stanley, proprietor and owner of the business, and Julie Newman who joined Kelly in 2011. Each have their own areas of expertise and knowledge.

We pride ourselves on our research and dedication, and our aim is always to present our clients with the perfect holiday to suit their requirements and ideals.

We have direct access to expertise in every area of the travel market, enabling us to tailor make a holiday to your exact requirements. Whether looking for a beach break in an exotic location or something more adventurous, our personal, friendly attention, and customer care, continues until your return home.

Kelly has a large client base for business travel and can source hotels and flights around your business needs, whether it be single or multiple delegates for the UK or abroad.
